PRE-ADVENT FAYRE & ACN

This year's fayre is on Saturday 25th/ Sunday 26th November. It has been agreed by the Parish Council that the proceeds from this year's fayre go to Aid to the Church in Need. ACN works to support persecuted Christians across the world and is working particularly hard at the moment to help displaced Christians in the middle East return to their homes. In Syria, war-torn families are struggling to buy food as the cost of living has spiralled since the outbreak of civil war. The price of wheat flour has increased by 300% and rice by 650%; Father Andrzej Halemba, ACN's Middle East project head described an "appalling daily struggle to buy food" endured by Christians and others. As a result, ACN is working directly with local Church leaders to support thousands who are at risk of starvation. In total 148 countries benefit from the work of ACN.

Donations received by ACN leave their offices at the end of each month, so the funds immediately get to where they are most needed.

Please start thinking NOW about what you would like to donate to the fayre - the usual coloured boxes will be out in a couple of weeks' time. Thank you.
