CELEBRATING FAMILY The feast of the Holy Family at the end of the year was a chance for us all to think about our own families and to celebrate with them. This year offers an unusual opportunity to do that in a very special way. On August 21-26, the World Meeting of Families (WMOF) will take place in Dublin: its highlight - a visit from Pope Francis. During the WMOF, there will be a wide-ranging programme of talks and workshops for adults, events for young people and various activities for children. That's in addition to exhibitions, cultural events and musical performances plus daily Mass.

All are welcome at this important and joyful international gathering. So why not start planning a visit now - more details to follow. For further info contact Carole Batty of the Southwark Diocesan Marriage & Family Life team on 07913 904997, or email carolemflkent@gmail.com.

SAINTS THIS WEEK

St Agatha - Monday 5th February

She was martyred at Catania in Sicily, probably during the persecution of Decius (250-253). Although not much is known about her, we know that devotion to her was widespread in the Church in the earliest times and she is mentioned in the Roman Canon of the Mass.

Thursday 8th February

St Josephine Bakhita - (1869 - 1947)

Josephine Bakhita was born near Jebel Agilere in the Sud Darfur (Sudan). Kidnapped when still very young, she experienced the cruelty of slavery as she was sold several times in slave markets of Africa. Finally she was rescued by an Italian family and brought to Italy where she not only became a Christian but also felt the call to consecrate her life to God as a sister. She joined the Canossian Daughters of Charity and lived the rest of her life at Schio, a small village near Vicenza. She died on 8 February, 1947.

Saturday 10th February

St Scholastica (480 - 547)

She was born in Nursia in about 480, the twin sister of St Benedict. She was dedicated to God from an early age and followed her brother to Cassino, where she died in about 547.

The Shipwreck of Saint Paul

As related in the Acts of the Apostles, the ship taking Saint Paul as a prisoner to Rome was shipwrecked on the coast of Malta. Paul and his companions were welcomed by Publius, the prefect of the island, and spent three months on Malta, preaching and performing miracles. The event is celebrated as the birth of the Catholic Church in Malta.
