THIS SUNDAY'S GOSPEL

In today's Gospel, Mark writes about Jesus teaching the crowds gathered about the kingdom of God, using two parables about seeds. He compares the sowing, growing and harvesting of the seeds to the kingdom of God. A man plants seeds which over time, night and day, first sprout then grow and develop into a fully grown shrub or tree. When the grain is ripe, then it is time for the harvest, so the man reaps. The emphasis in the parable is on the seed, which seemingly has the power to grow on its own. In this it is like the Kingdom of God. While on earth, Jesus similarly planted the seeds of the kingdom by his life, miracles, teaching, and eventual suffering. However, like the young seedlings, the kingdom is not yet fully established. Although already present in Jesus and his group of twelve, it has yet to come to fruition; just as the seed in the parable needs time to grow, so does God's kingdom.

Jesus goes on to the well known parable of the tiny mustard seed. Small as the mustard seed is, it develops into a large tree with big outstretching branches, providing a welcoming nesting place for birds, just as God's kingdom is welcoming and open to many.

These parables help us discern something about the kingdom of God and our own faith. Today, the Kingdom of God is present in the Church. The mission of proclaiming the Good News of the Kingdom given to the Apostles is now given to us. But just as seeds need time to come to fruition, so does the Kingdom of God.

That is why in the Lord's Prayer, we pray, "thy kingdom come." We know that it will come in its fullness at the end of time. All we need is faith.
