TODAY is EDUCATION SUNDAY

Education Sunday falls on the second Sunday of September (10 September, in 2023) just as the new academic year starts and is one of the oldest Days of Special Prayer in England and Wales, established 175 years ago in 1848. It provides an opportunity to celebrate the gift of Catholic schools and to give thanks to all involved in making them places of enlightenment. We look forward to the new scholastic year and we ask for God's Blessing on all as we pray:

Lord, Thank you for all those who have given their talents to educating our young people. Through the challenges they encounter each day, lead them to an ever deeper appreciation of the sacred duty to which you have called them.

Thank you for all those who contribute to the efficient running of our schools: support staff, kitchen staff, maintenance staff, governors and chaplains.

We thank them for their hard work and dedication.

Thank you for all those who lead our Catholic schools. May they be people of integrity so that they can be witnesses as well as teachers. We pray that the schools they lead will become places where our young people can experience your love in their lives.

Thank you for our pupils. May your love strengthen and nurture them through the influence and example of those who care for them. We pray that through their time at school they will flourish and grow to discover who you have called them to be.

We make this prayer through your Son, Jesus Christ, our teacher and our Lord, Amen.

THE DIOCESAN ANNUAL SERVICE FOR THOSE WHO HAVE BEEN HARMED BY ABUSE will be led by Archbishop John Wilson and will be held on the 27th September 2023 at 6.30pm. The Service will be held at St George's Cathedral. We would welcome your attendance and support at this event. This Service allows the Archdiocese to acknowledge, pray and reflect on the pain that is caused by abuse and to demonstrate the Archdiocese's commitment to supporting those who have been abused and creating safe environments.
