Today is The Feast of

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Today we celebrate the solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, three Persons in one God: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. In John's Gospel today, Jesus continues to reassure his disciples that, even though he had to leave them, he would not be abandoning them, but rather leave them in the capable hands of the Holy Spirit. Whatever the future held for them, they would not be facing it alone, but would always have the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of Truth, guiding their words and actions, enabling them to continue imparting the teaching of Jesus to others. This passage reinforces our understanding of the unity shared by the members of the Trinity. Although the doctrine of the Trinity remains a mystery we have the assurance that, as Jesus and the Father share everything equally, so do Jesus and the Spirit.

ST MARY'S UNIVERSITY - the UK's oldest Catholic university, has just launched an MA in Social Justice and Public Service. The programme can be taken full time or part time. It has two unique aspects. The first is that it requires participants to undertake service to the community through a UK charity. That service will be related to the taught part of the programme in an assessed portfolio. Secondly, there is a very wide range of modules with a social justice and charity management orientation from which participants can choose. These include modules on human trafficking; education, development and social justice; Catholic social teaching; bio-ethics; and charity marketing and a range of other possibilities. A number of these modules can be taken either by distance learning or face-to-face, whichever students prefer. The programme can be taken by people who are already working or volunteering for a charity and the charitable service that they are already doing will fulfil the "service-learning" aspect of the programme. The charitable service does not have to be unpaid. As such, the programme is helpful for those who wish to learn more about the academic side of their charitable work, for those who might wish to develop their career within a charity or for those who are looking for a Master's programme that will combine practical and taught elements. There will be one full-free scholarship will be available for full-time students in addition to one scholarship available to anybody who was a citizen of or resident in Ukraine on 24th February. Further details of the course can be found at: <https://www.stmarys.ac.uk/postgraduate-courses-london/social-justice-and-public-service>
