FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT the start of PASSIONTIDE

This Sunday in the liturgical year of the Church marks the beginning of a 2-week period called Passiontide. Although short, this period is a season in its own right, and has been observed for longer than Lent itself. We veil all the images in our church to reflect the sombre mood of this fortnight, and because even the angels and saints hide their faces, as it were, from what is soon to take place. But we veil crucifixes also in reference to Our Lord's response when the Pharisees tried to stone him: "And Jesus hid himself, and went out of the Temple," (Jn 8:58). At the Incarnation, the Word of God veiled his Divinity; now, in his sufferings, he appears before us "marred... beyond human semblance," (Is. 52:14). It is as if, in his Passion, he veils even his humanity. Moreover, just as on the Cross he "thirsts to be thirsted for," so we, too, begin to thirst for the sight of his holy countenance, being denied it for so long, as we look forward to our deliverance at Easter.

There is also now on the usual notice-board, the sign-up sheet for Readers & Extra-Ordinary Ministers.
