PENTECOST SUNDAY (C)

Today, 50 days after Easter, we mark the end of the Easter season - Paschaltide - with the Solemnity of Pentecost, when we pray afresh for the 7 gifts of the Holy Spirit, that they may guide us along the right path. Come, Holy Spirit, fill my heart with your heavenly fruits: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, trustfulness, gentleness and self-control, that I may, by faithful submission to your inspiration, merit to be united eternally with you in the love of the Father and the Son. Amen.

Today sees the return of the Sunday Obligation - suspended for over 2 years due to the pandemic - as instructed by the Archbishop.

Today we also celebrate the Platinum Jubilee of

QUEEN ELIZABETH II ~ 1952 ~ 2022

O Lord, we thank you for the many years of devoted duty and service of our gracious Queen to the people of our country. Help us, by her example, to serve with wisdom, humility, understanding and tolerance. Amen

PACT ~ The National Catholic Prison Charity - Pact provides a considerable number of valuable strands of work in the Archdiocese to support prisoners and their families. We're going to talk about our work and share the voices of people who can be on the margins at a diocesan Roadshow in Amigo Hall on Saturday 11th June, to be opened by Archbishop Wilson.

At the event, bringing together parishioners, prison chaplains, Pact staff, and ecumenical partners, we will bring to life the information you may read in our Fresh Start magazine. Pact services staff will talk about how they reach prisoners and their families in the diocese. We will hear from people with lived experience of the criminal justice system. We will reflect on Catholic Social Teaching and Jesus' challenge to us, 'I was in prison and you visited me'. We will share simple practical ideas for ways parishes, groups and individuals can help. We extend a warm welcome to all including those who have lived experience of the criminal justice system.

A simple lunch will be provided. If you'd like to attend, please register here: <https://bit.ly/3FmxqCs>. Contact Theresa for more information: parish.action@prisonadvice.org.uk, and see poster for more.
