A WARM WELCOME BACK TO ALL PARISHIONERS!

We hope and pray that you all have had a peaceful and restful Summer and we look forward to the new scholastic year, and to more of what we know as normal life, please God. After 18 months of intermittent lockdowns and restrictions, we are pleased to announce that the Parish Office is now open! Office hours are Monday to Friday from 10am - 1pm, so please endeavour to call between those times, unless it's an emergency, of course.

We have now had our Sunday Mass Sheets back, which is a blessing, and more recently, we have also re-started printing the weekly bulletin, so it's available at the back of church to all who would like to take a copy home after Mass.

ST JOSEPH'S CHILDREN'S CHOIR - Chorister opportunity for children in school Years 4 - 8. Saint Joseph's choristers will sing the 11:30am Mass twice a term, along with the adult Schola. Young singing voices will be nurtured in an enthusiastic and caring musical environment. Contact our Director of Music, Peter Morrell, newmaldenmusic@rcaos.org.uk for more information.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE is an exciting new Parish Initiative for Young People in Year 10 and above. First meeting is on Sunday 26th September from 6.30-8pm in our Parish Hall with pizza. We are looking for adults connected to areas of climate change, homelessness, etc to offer their expertise to encourage the young people. Please email the Parish office if you feel you can help. Poster on the website for more info.
