‘Today, 8 February, is the Feast of St Josephine Bakhita, a Sudanese nun, who as a child had the traumatic experience of being a victim of human trafficking. The Unions of Superiors and Superiors General of Religious Institutes have organised the Day of Prayer and Awareness against Human Trafficking. I encourage those who work helping the men, women and children who are enslaved, exploited, abused as instruments of work or pleasure, who are often tortured and mutilated. It is my hope that government leaders may work decisively to remove the causes of this disgraceful scourge, it is a scourge unworthy of society. May each one of us feel committed to being a voice for our brothers and sisters, who have been humiliated in their dignity. Let us all pray...’ Pope Francis: Angelus Prayer February 8th, 2015.

“The Power of care – women, economy and human trafficking” is the theme for the 8th International Day of Prayer and Reflection against human trafficking, on the next 8th of February, 2022.

The theme’s choice continues the previous year’s, where we began to reflect on the connection between the economy and human trafficking. The 2022 edition proposes to focus on women. They are, in fact, the most affected by the violence of trafficking. At the same time, they have a fundamental and important role in the process of transforming the economy of exploitation into one of care. *Picture & text from preghieracontrotratta.org. # Next Sunday 13th February is Racial Justice Sunday ~ One in Christ

Archbishop John Wilson created the Archdiocesan Commission for Racial Justice and Cultural Inclusion in 2021. The primary purpose of the Commission is to engage with the clergy and people of the Archdiocese of Southwark, stating the key message of God's love for everyone, and that there is no place for racism in our parishes, schools and churches. All parishes are invited to celebrate Racial Justice Sunday, and in particular, to give thanks for this new Southwark Commission and their work. Everyone is warmly invited to attend 10 am Mass in St George's Cathedral on Racial Justice Sunday, to celebrate the fact that we are all 'One in Christ'. Cultural Dress is very welcome. Please email: racialjusticecommission@rcaos.org.uk if you plan to attend. View the livestream: <https://youtu.be/62sluHPSbIU>. We will have a 2nd Collection next weekend in support. Please visit our website for more events from our Archdiocese.

GOODBYE FR JUDE AND WELCOME BACK FR UCHE!

This week we say a big thank you and goodbye to Fr Jude, who has been so supportive and helpful during his ministry amongst us these past few weeks. We welcome back Fr Uche from his well-deserved break.

Collection for Deacon Allan Macdonald's Ordination Gift

Many of you will know or will have met Deacon Allan by now - last summer he had the opportunity to deacon and preach for us at several Masses.
