THIS WEEKEND is PRISONERS' SUNDAY - a time when the Catholic Church encourages us to bring prisoners and their families into the hearts and minds of our parish communities, and remember in our prayers those among us affected by the criminal justice system. The Gospel reading for today is about the healing of the 10 lepers (Lk 17:11-19). In the time of Jesus, lepers were outcast from society. We can think of those affected by imprisonment as similarly being on the margins of society today. One mother whose husband was sent to prison said: 'You lose friends. People were talking about me in the playground'. In this excerpt from Luke's gospel, the lepers call out to Jesus and he helps them, restoring them to their communities. At PACT, the dignity of each person is respected, supporting those affected to make a fresh start, together with their family, and be restored into the community. Today's second collection supports PACT. Please be generous. Thank you.
